ARTICLE 3 - MEMBERS' MEETINGS

3.1 Meeting Place. Meetings of the members will be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place as is determined from time to time by the Board and stated in the meeting notice.

3.2 Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of members will be held on the last Tuesday of the second month following the close of the fiscal year of the Corporation; provided that any such meeting may be held at any other time designated by the Board or by the majority of the members entitled to vote at such meeting. At such annual meetings, directors will be elected, reports of affairs of the Corporation will be considered and any other business may be transacted which is within the powers of the members to transact and which may be properly brought before the meeting.

3.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called for any purpose by the president (or, in his absence or disability, by the vice president), by the Board, by a notice signed by the entire membership of the Corporation. Upon a request being made by written notice to the president or, in his absence or disability, to the vice president, or to the secretary, by any person or persons herein empowered to call a special meeting, if such officer is the secretary, he will give notice to the members or, if such officer is other than the secretary, he will cause the secretary to give notice to the members that such meeting has been called for the purpose or purposes stated in such request and is to be held at a specified time, which time will not be less than fifteen (15) days or more than forty-five (45) days after the receipt of such request. If notice of such meeting is not given to the members within seven (7) days after the receipt of such request, such person or persons making such request may fix the time of such special meeting and give notice thereof in the same manner as hereinafter provided.

3.4 Notice of Meeting. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3.11 hereof, a written notice of each meeting of the members, stating the date, hour and place and in case of special meetings the purpose thereof, will be personally delivered or mailed by the secretary of the Corporation, postage prepaid, to each member of record, at the street address of such member in Edgewater Development, or at such other address as any member may have provided to the Corporation in writing, at least fifteen (15) days but not more than forty-five (45) days before the date of each meeting.

3.5 Quorum. A majority of the members entitled to cast over one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all votes of the Corporation present in person or by proxy will constitute a quorum at meetings of members. When a quorum is present, a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting will decide any question brought before such meeting. If the required quorum is not present, another meeting may be called subject to the same notice requirement, and the required quorum at the subsequent meeting shall be the presence in person or by proxy of Owners (as defined in the Covenants) having one-third ($\frac{1}{3}$) of the total votes of the Corporation. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by law, these Bylaws, the Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions of Edgewater Development (the "Covenants") or the Certificate of Incorporation.

3.6 Voting. At each meeting of members, every member will be entitled to vote in person or by proxy and, the number of votes per member, how to become a member of the Corporation, and related voting issues shall be governed by Article IV of the Covenants. In order to determine the members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or to receive payment of any assessments or dues or allotment of members' rights, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board may fix a date, which date shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. In such case, only such members of record on the date so fixed will be entitled to such rights or obligations, and the Corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim or other interest in the part of any other person, whether or not the Corporation shall have express or other notice thereof. The Corporation will be entitled to treat the member of record as the absolute owner and entitled to vote and will not be bound to recognize any other claim or interest in such shares on the part of any other person whether or not the Corporation has notice thereof. The voting at all meetings of members may be oral, but any qualified voter may demand a vote by written ballot, whereupon such vote will be taken by written ballot stating the name of the member, the number of shares voted and, if such ballot be cast by proxy, the name of such proxy.

3.7 Proxies. Any member entitled to vote may vote by proxy. The appointment of a proxy will be in writing signed by the member but will require no other attestation. Each proxy statement will be filed with the secretary of the Corporation at or before the meeting. In no case will a proxy be appointed for a period of over seven (7) years. The authority of a proxy not coupled with an interest may be terminated at will. Unless otherwise provided in the appointment, the proxy's authority will cease three (3) years after the appointment. The termination of a proxy's authority by act of the member will, subject to the time limitations herein set forth, be ineffective until written notice of the termination has been given to the secretary of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided therein, an appointment filed with the secretary will have the effect of revoking all proxy appointments of prior date. A proxy's authority will not be revoked by the death or incapacity of the member, unless before the vote is cast or the authority is exercised written notice of such death or incapacity is given to the secretary of the Corporation.

3.8 Officers of Members' Meetings. The president, if present, will preside at all meetings of members. In his absence, the next officer, in due order, who may be present, will preside. The secretary of the Corporation will act as secretary of all members' meetings and will keep a true and correct record of the proceedings of all meetings.

3.9 Order of Business. The order of business at the annual meeting, and so far as practicable at all other meetings of the members, will be as follows: (1) calling meeting to order; (2) calling of roll and checking proxies; (3) proof of notice of meetings; (4) reading of any unapproved minutes; (5) reports of officers; (6) reports of committees; (7) election of directors and establishment of fees, if any, therefor; (8) unfinished business; (9) new business; and (10) adjournment.

3.10 Approval of Action Taken. Any transactions of the members at any meeting, regardless of how call was made or notice given, will be valid as though transacted at a meeting duly held by regular call and notice if a quorum is present and if before or after the meeting each of the members entitled to vote and not present in person or by proxy signs a written waiver of notice. All such waivers of notice will be filed with the secretary and made a part of the records of the meeting.

3.11 Consent to Action. Any action, which under any provision of the laws of the State of Oklahoma, the Covenants, the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws might be taken at either an annual or special meeting of the members, may be taken without a meeting, prior notice or a vote if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is made and signed by the members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote were present and voted and such consent will be filed with the secretary and made a part of the corporate records. Prompt notice of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those members who have not consented in writing.

3.12 Books and Records. Except as required by law, the Board will determine, from time to time, the extent and conditions under which the accounts, books and records of the Corporation will be open to inspection by the members, and the members' right to inspect will be limited accordingly.

ARTICLE 4 - DIRECTORS

4.1 Authority. The Board will have charge of the property, interests, business, transactions and affairs of the Corporation with full power and authority to manage, control and conduct the same. In addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred on the Board by these Bylaws, the Board may exercise all powers and take such actions as are not by statute, the Covenants, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws required to be exercised by the members.

4.2 Number; Term of Office. The Board will consist of not less than two (2) nor more than nine (9) directors. The members at any annual meeting and at any special meeting called for such purpose may determine the number of directors which will constitute the Board, and the number so determined will remain fixed until changed at a subsequent meeting. The directors, except for the initial director(s) which have been named in the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, will be selected at the annual members meeting and will serve for one (1) year or until a successor is elected and qualified (even though necessitating a term in excess of one (1) year).

4.3 Qualification. A director need not be a member of the Corporation.

4.4 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors or by a sole remaining director, and each person so elected will serve as a director until removed or until a successor is elected by the members.

4.8 Regular Meetings. An annual meeting of the Board for the purpose of electing officers of the Corporation and the transaction of any other business coming before such meeting will be held each year immediately following the adjournment of the annual members' meeting, and no notice of such meeting will be necessary. Such notice will be served either personally or by mail not less than seven (7) days before any meeting, giving the time, place, and in case of special meetings, the purpose thereof, and no business will be considered at any special meeting other than the purpose stated in such notice. Any director may, in writing, either before or after the meeting waive notice thereof and without notice any director by attendance at any meeting will be deemed to have waived such notice.

4.11 Memorandum of Action. Any action which might be taken at any meeting of the Board or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or committee thereof consent to such action in writing, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of the Board or the committee.

4.12 Quorum. At all meetings of the Board, a quorum will consist of a majority of the directors. The acts of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be the acts of the Board. A minority of the Board present at any regular or special meeting may, in the absence of a quorum, adjourn to a later date, but may not transact any other business until a quorum has been secured. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting adjourned.

4.13 Telephonic Conferences. Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of telephone conference or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this section will constitute presence in person at such meeting.

ARTICLE 11 - INDEMNIFICATION

11.1 Third Party Actions. The Corporation will have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, will not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which was reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

11.2 Actions by Corporation. The Corporation will have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in the Corporation's favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorney's fees actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification will be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court deems proper.

11.3 Right to Indemnification. To the extent that any present or former director, officer, employee or person who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or any agent of the Corporation or any person who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as an agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 11.1 or 11.2 or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person will be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.

11.4 Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Sections 11.1 or 11.2 (unless ordered by a court) will be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case on a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 11.1 or 11.2. Such determination will be made by the Board by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or if a quorum of the directors is not obtainable, or even if it is obtainable and a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or by the members.

11.5 Advance Indemnification. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it is ultimately determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized by the provisions of this Article.

11.6 Nonexclusive Indemnification. The indemnification provided by this Article 11 will not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification might be entitled under any agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and will continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

11.7 Insurance. The Corporation will have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of this Article 11.
